NOMINATE OUR INDUSTRY’S INFLUENTIAL LEADERS TODAY!

The M.Z. “Andy” Gump Award is the portable sanitation industry’s most prestigious honor. Named for industry pioneer Andy Gump, the award recognizes the qualities we most prize as well as positive impacts on our association and the wider community.

Selection of this year’s recipient will be based on the following criteria:

A. Conducting business and personal relationships with fairness and integrity
B. Improving our industry image in the business and public sectors
C. Creating new products, services or related technology
D. Leading colleagues in the advancement of the portable sanitation industry
E. Exhibiting vision in responding to the economic and environmental challenges facing our industry

Guidelines and requirements:

• Open to individuals working or retired from the portable sanitation industry or complementary roles which influence the industry.
• Nominations submitted after February 1, 2016 will be returned for submission another year.
• Nominators must provide contact information for both the nominee and any persons submitting letters of support.
• The nominating essay and all letters of support must be signed by the authors and submitted no later than February 1, 2016.
• It is not mandatory that your nomination be confidential, but it is customary. In order to preserve the good feelings of worthy nominees who may not be chosen this year, we ask that you respect this confidentiality and let the Awards Committee know if the nominee is aware of his/her nomination.
• Generally winners are not aware of their status in advance. Your assistance may be required in ensuring the winner is present in Nashville at the General Session on Thursday, March 10, 2016.
